Highlights of World Diabetic Day

We organised a Diabetic Awareness Programme, in lieu of World Diabetic Day(14.11.18) with the theme based on "The family and Diabetes". The students screened each family for Diabetes. They checked blood glucose level for the family members, given diabetic education and distributed pamphlets too.

Opening Message

Dear Reader, I express my continuous support for the newsletter and having an ongoing newsletter would enhance communication within and outside the college.

The future of college of nursing is very bright. Having the continuous support of dedicated, competent work of faculty and staff, success is assured. I hereby send good wishes and best of luck to all those faculty and students who are affiliated with the college. I also send my regards to the readers of the issue of "BEATS".

Happy Reading.

By,
Dr. Mrs. V. Selvanayagi,
Principal, VMACON, Salem.

Dear Reader,

You are reading the third edition of newsletter, "BEATS" by Department of Medical Surgical Nursing. There is so much more to learn about and be inspired by in this issue that we have a feeling you will be referring it again and again.

We have decided to challenge ourselves in this issue to find the best ways to develop our department much better in this year. I acknowledge constant hardwork of the faculty who proved to be as catalysts in mobilizing the students to do their responsibilities efficiently. If you have any questions and suggestion or concerns, please address to the editor.
